A NOVEL PROCEEDING STRIKES

In the Suit of the People Against the Manhattan Elevated Railway Company—Justice Brady Revoked an Order Made by the Judge.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The Tribune says: Justice Brady, of his own motion, yesterday vacated the stay which he granted last Friday in the proceedings of the Attorney General for the appointment of a receiver of the property of the Manhattan Railway Company.

Justice Brady took his seat on the bench, and began to address the counsel who had appeared in response to his request. He was evidently deeply moved. He spoke in a low, husky voice, and his face was very pale. He said: "I have sent for counsel on both sides in the suit of the people against the Manhattan Railway Company, to say that I have determined to vacate the order which I granted last Friday, staying proceedings in the motion for the appointment of a receiver."

Mr. Bacon, of the firm of Dorsheimer, Bacon & Deyo, who was the only one of the counsel for the present, began to address the court and to speak of what occurred before Justice Brady, when he (Bacon) and Mr. Lowry made application for a stay. Mr. Harrison interrupted and earnestly said: "If your honor, please, if you will, do not allow the Attorney General's decision to be heard at once and fully."

Mr. Bacon quickly answered: "I have no objection to make," and almost immediately left the room. He appeared to be still out of the room.

Justice Brady, after reiterating the statement that the order was made on his motion, went to his private room, from whence he sent to the County Clerk's office for the original order staying the proceedings, and with his hand endorsed on it the necessary order.

The Honey and Stock Market.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The Commercial Bulletin says, notwithstanding last Saturday's bank statement and the prospect of one for the coming Saturday being favorable, the money market to-day was easy at about three per cent for call loans on stocks.

Our reason for expecting the bank statement for this week may be unfavorable, large amounts of money are to be sent from here to Philadelphia as the proceeds of the sale of the Pennsylvania railroad collateral trust four per cent bonds.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company wants this money to pay the Boston and other holders of Philadelphia, Baltimore & Wilmington railroad stock, a majority of which was recently bought by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

Mr. Woodin's rule, if adopted, will put an end to all attempts to secure an adjournment by underhand means, and are declared by the Halfbreeds to have been introduced for the purpose of putting an end to such a motion as those described in these dispatches as having been made by Sharpe on Friday and Saturday.

At 12:40 the joint convention adjourned until to-morrow noon.

A CONFIDENTIAL TRICK.

In the Senate Mr. Eldred presented a petition signed by 3,100 citizens of the Eighth Senatorial District asking for the return of Conkling and Platt.

THE BREWERS' STRIKE

In New York and Brooklyn Inaugurated Yesterday, as Threatened.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The employees of the larger beer breweries of this city and Brooklyn, struck this morning for an increase of wages or a decrease of the hours of labor. The strikers congregated by hundreds and discussed the situation quietly. The strikers number over 1,000, leaving nearly forty brewing firms without help.

The strikers have been pending for some weeks and is being managed by one of the reporters of a German Socialist newspaper, who organized the nation. The strikers marched from the various breweries to the Assembly Rooms, where speeches were made and a resolution adopted denouncing the employees of the breweries.

A secret meeting of the brewery proprietors is in progress in Stenham Hall. Many of the prominent firms are represented. The strikers are willing to reduce the hours to twelve a day, but insist on Sunday work. They also declare their intention of closing their breweries sooner than a stop to Sunday work.

Several of the strikers were represented at the meeting.

Fatal Results of a Quarrel.

CINCINNATI, June 6.—Louis H. Mager, twenty-five, was found this forenoon in a dying condition, in a butcher shop, on Court street, and died on the way to the hospital. He had a quarrel last evening with some boys at the shop, and one of them threw at him a piece of window glass, which struck him on the head. He went back into the shop, and he was found there this morning, in a pool of blood. Dr. Mahoney is the name of the boy who threw the glass.

A Fatal Family Feud.

CINCINNATI, June 6.—News comes from Berlin, Ky., a small town sixteen miles from Augusta, of the murder of William Sims by his brother-in-law, McGlow. Sims and McGlow were last seen together on Friday, when McGlow, who was drunk, was accusing Sims of having stolen his money. On Sunday Sims' body was found in the woods, bearing eleven stabs, which caused his death. McGlow, when sober, found his money on his own person. He has confessed to the murder and is in jail at Braskville.

Barbarism in St. Tammany Parish.

NEW ORLEANS, La., June 6.—A small negro boy living with a colored family named Smith, in St. Tammany parish, was roasted to death yesterday, in punishment for stealing a loaf of bread. Smith and his practice Voodooism among the ignorant negroes in the parish. The boy was nearly starved, and embraced the opportunity afforded by the absence of the family, to steal the loaf. He was found tied to the boy in the fireplace and roasted him so badly that he died shortly after.

Gracious Fate.

CHICAGO, June 6.—John Graciano says he has passed the crisis in his life, and that henceforward he expects to lose very little weight, and, perhaps, to gain. His pulse is pretty steady at sixty-two, temperature normal, and on fourth, respiration twenty. At noon to-day he entered upon the tenth day of his fast, and yet he looks comfortable and natural, with no signs of famine about him.

CAPITAL CHAT.

GENERAL TYPING.

Assistant Postmaster-General, returned to the city to-day from New York and Philadelphia, where he has been on official business for the Postoffice Department in connection with the Star route business. He has not resigned his position and does not contemplate any change being made. On the contrary he has assurances from the President that his resignation will not be wanted.

Attorney-General McVeagh went to Philadelphia to-day on Star route business.

COLONEL YONT, A PROMINENT REPUBLICAN OF VIRGINIA, and editor of the Valley Virginian, is in the city. He says that the ticket nominated by the recent Readjusters' convention in Richmond, will not stand a chance of election. It would not get, he said, 5,000 votes beyond the Blue Ridge Mountains. The Republicans, he said, would certainly hold a convention and nominate a straight Republican ticket. The mixed ticket, and a Republican ticket, at the Alabama convention does not, he says, please either the Republicans or the Readjusters.

SEVERAL OF MAHONEY'S FRIENDS who were in attendance at the recent convention have arrived here for the purpose of urging President Garfield and the administration to recommend the Republicans in Virginia to support the Mahone ticket in that State. They will probably fall in their mission, as the President is not disposed to interfere in any manner, but to allow the Republicans under the leadership of General Wickham, Dr. Jorgensen and other prominent leaders in that State to determine the course which is proper to pursue.

THE PRESIDENT returned from Hampton Roads this morning, and found the White House crowded with the office seekers who have been hanging on over since the adjournment of Congress. These people follow the President's movements very closely. When he was absent, Saturday, there was not one of them at the House. They knew he was to return to-day, and were on hand before the steamer had arrived at the Navy Yard.

BRADY IN WALL STREET.

The Capital, which is an earnest champion of Brady, of Star route fame, in commenting on a dispatch setting forth his wonderful success in stock speculation, represents his gains at over $400,000, and says: "General Brady is the most indefatigable and luckiest speculator we ever knew. His operations, of course, bear no comparison in magnitude to those of Gould, Sage, Keane and Vanderbilt, but that because his capital is smaller; than theirs, not because he lacks either the will or the nerve. It is probable that he will proportion to his capital, Brady is the most active operator in the street. There has not been a week at a time in two and one-half years when he did not have from 60 to 90 per cent of all he was worth or could be worth embarked in stock deals, and while, like all speculators, he sometimes gets on the wrong side, the general balance is undoubtedly in his favor."

THE MOREY LETTER CONSPIRATORS.

Although the Morey letter has almost passed from the public mind, it is a fact that the government law officers in New York have been very busy for some time in following the clues which they have obtained. It is also known that they have met with signal success, and fully expect to be able at an early day to fix the conspiracy. Dr. Mahoney is the name of the man who is believed to be the most active operator in the street. There has not been a week at a time in two and one-half years when he did not have from 60 to 90 per cent of all he was worth or could be worth embarked in stock deals, and while, like all speculators, he sometimes gets on the wrong side, the general balance is undoubtedly in his favor."

CHEYENNE, June 6.—A case of intermarriage of a Chinaman named Lee Chin and a white woman named Mrs. Eva A. Lee is attracting much attention. The statutes of Wyoming forbid such marriages, and the couple had the ceremony performed in Denver, the Colorado laws not prohibiting. Mr. and Mrs. Lee have been indicted for bigamy.

The Chinese consul at Denver, under the direction of the Chinese Ambassador at Washington, has become interested in behalf of his countrymen, and will contest the case in the courts. Judge Carroll and J. C. Bair have been retained to defend the case, meanwhile a full statement is being prepared for the Chinese Ambassador to present to the State Department, and diplomatic correspondence is likely to ensue.

TOPIC OF ABSORBING INTEREST.

Beyond the Rhine—Continued Agitation and Lawlessness in Ireland—Grave State of Affairs in Bulgaria—Russian and Other News.

DUBLIN, June 6.—Farrell, Chairman of the town commissioners of Mulligan, Westmeath, and President of the branch of the Land League, and Tait, Secretary of the branch, were arrested under the Coercion act. Only one man was shot in the fight with the Ballif's posse at Bally Brophy; the affair was not entirely agrarian.

Right Reverend Thomas Nulty, Bishop of Meath, in replying to the address from the Meath Land League, said the Land League had splendid principles, but he deprecated the agitation against the payment of all rent. He said he had received a letter from an American priest who said he had organized branches of the League in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky among the Quaker people. It is stated that in most of the disturbed districts ribbon lodges are in active operation, and to these lodges is to be traced the actual carrying out of the system of agrarian terrorism.

In Limerick a publican named Higgins was attacked by a man armed with a revolver, wounding three men, one seriously. Higgins has been arrested.

A CONSPIRATOR IN TROUBLE.

His Professional Curiosity Gets Him Into a Serious Scrape.

LONDON, June 6.—"Warhawk," Mr. Palmer, who has been arrested at Constantinople on suspicion of being the chief conspirator in a plot, writes to the Times, stating that he warned the Grand Visir in 1883 that a plot existed to assassinate the Sultan, and that some persons privy to the plot are now under arrest.

"Warhawk" was then requested for his own safety to quit Constantinople, which he did, but returned in 1877. "Warhawk" states that his object in writing to the Times, is that for some days past every sort of inducement has been offered and threats made to procure his silence on the affair of '88 there. In London, he says, there are abundant papers which will throw every light on the subject. "Warhawk's" letter is dated Constantinople, May 27.

The Times' correspondent at Constantinople says: Palmer's reason for returning to Turkey was to have the affair of '88 officially re-examined. A few hours after the publication of the letter written by Palmer to a local paper, which was similar to the letter to the Times, Palmer was arrested.

LONDON, June 6.—A Berlin correspondent says: A Russian friend sends me a striking picture of the state of imprisonment to which recent events have thrown the Czar. The palace at Gatchina is filled with soldiery and police. Every one has to be searched, and every one is subjected to a rigorous search, whenever they have occasion to go there. The Court will soon remove to Peterhof, which has a small port at the mouth of the Neva. Four ships will be anchored there and no other vessels allowed to approach. Two yachts will always be ready to convey the Czar to and from St. Petersburg, accompanied on either side by a gunboat.
